PARADE WILL OPEN LEAGUE SEASON, BEGINNING AT 2 P. M.

Tomorrow Is the Big Day of the Year With the Baseball Fan of Ogden—Band of 25 Pieces to Furnish Music—President of Union Association Banqueted at Weber Club—Predicts Fast Ball.

The baseball clubs and fans of Ogden, Salt Lake and Boise are eagerly awaiting the dawn of tomorrow and hoping that Old Sol will force the clouds away before evening and that they will stay away, at least until the 1914 schedule of the Union association is set in motion by the mayors of the six cities interested.

President Ed F. Murphy of the Union association was in Ogden for a few hours today and was a guest of President A. P. Bigelow, Vice President W. D. Brown and Directors Dr. H. M. Rowe and A. G. Horn of the Ogden baseball club, at a luncheon in the Weber club.

While here the situation of the Union association for the 1914 season was freely discussed by him with the local magistrates. Among other things, he said that he could not imagine why the season, which will open tomorrow, will not be the best that the association has ever known, both for the fans, the players and the clubs.

In his visit to Ogden, Salt Lake, Murray, Helena, Boise and Butte he has noted a good healthy spirit of rivalry.

He has just returned from the Pacific coast where he saw the Portland, Venice, San Francisco and Sacramento teams in action and, in comparing them with the teams in the Union association, both from the past records of the individual players and from the pre-season games, in which he has seen them work, he says that the teams of the Union association are the equal of the coast teams in any line of the game.

"In fact," he said, "I have no hesitancy in saying that, although the Union association is registered as a class D organization, the fans in the six cities will see class B or class A ball, and I look to see closely contested and interesting games."

He was very optimistic regarding the outlook for record breaking crowds at the opening games, as the people of Salt Lake, Ogden and Boise were making preparations to make the day a gala event.

He left for Boise at 3:15 p. m., where he will attend the opening game between the Butte and Boise teams, but before leaving he said that he would return to Ogden later in the week, as he wished to see some of the opening series in each city.

The local magistrates and committee from the Weber club have met with gratifying success in their requests for support from the city authorities and business men, in making tomorrow a gala day, with the Ogden-Murray game as the center of attraction.

Mayor A. G. Fell has issued a holiday proclamation, which will close all of the city offices for a half day. Some of the mercantile houses, banks and professional offices will close either at 1 or 3 p. m., to insure a big attendance at the game. It is expected that the Murray team will bring a big delegation of rooters from the smelter town and an excursion via the Ogden Rapid Transit company's line has been arranged to accommodate a large crowd of people from Brigham City who have signified a desire to be present at the game.

The celebration will start with a big parade at 2 p. m. This will form along Wall avenue, south of Twenty-fifth street, and the line of march will be east from the Union depot to Washington avenue, north to Canyon road and east to Glenwood park. The parade will be led by two buglers from the Ogden high school cadet corps and following them will be a platoon of police.

Then will come the Ogden City military band of 25 pieces and the next in line will be the Ogden high school cadets in full uniform. They will be followed by the State Industrial school cadets and the heroes of the day will follow them, Gimlin's braves on one side of the road and Cliff Blankenship's Murray men on the other, all in their new uniforms.

A long line of automobiles will follow the marchers, with Mayor Fell and the city commissioners in the leading car and the city fire department next in line.

The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30 p. m. and the first ball will be pitched by Mayor Fell of Ogden and received by Mayor Huscher of Murray.

The lineup will be as follows, with the exception of Murray's pitcher, whose name has not yet been announced:

UNIQUE AFFAIR GIVEN
A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. A. J. Crase, 604 West Twenty-fourth street, Saturday evening, last, when Misses Mabel Crase and Elsie Mann, dressed in darkies' attire, entertained at a cotton shower in honor of Miss Agnes Farr, one of the early brides-to-be.

The home was artistically decorated in the southern style and strains of southern melodies rang throughout the evening.

A dainty luncheon was served under a large umbrella, from which were hung numerous cotton balls, the table being an exact reproduction of a cotton plantation with darkies and cotton bales in evidence around the log cabin in the center. Colored baskets filled with cotton and nigger dolls were given as favors. Directly over the honored guest's chair hung a huge bale of cotton from which showered her many dainty and useful gifts.

After extending their best wishes for happiness to the bride-to-be the guests departed, voting the hostesses very clever darkie entertainers.

Those present were: Mesdames. Hattie E. Knapp, W. E. Ashment, C. E. Crase, T. A. Newman, and A. J. Crase. Misses Agnes Farr, Pearl Jones, Winnifred Geiger, Nellie McWhinney, Elsie Mann and Mabel Crase.

FRENCH MISSION OF THE MORMON CHURCH
Elder Earl Read addressed a large congregation in the Third ward meeting house last night on the subject of "The French Mission" of the Mormon church. In his talk, he said that the French mission was the last one organized by the church and that it included all of France and the parts of Belgium, Italy and Switzerland, where French is spoken.

He outlined the work of the elders in that field, telling of the difficulties which they met with in promulgating the gospel and also spoke in a very interesting way of the industrial and home life of the people and the points of special interest in the different countries.

The meeting was conducted by Bishop William D. Van Dyke Jr. and in addition to Elder Read's talk the beautiful rendition of "The Day is Ended" by Miss Melba Read, one of the city's best known young sopranos, was appreciated. Elder Read played a violin obligato to Miss Read's solo and the organ accompaniment was by Ernest E. Ohorn. The incidental organ music during the service, played by Mrs. Julia Van Dyke, was also appreciated.

General Chase With 200 Militiamen Arrive at Canon City Mines.

NO OPEN OUTBREAK
Strikers and State Guards Alike Anxiously Await Sending of U. S. Troops.

Denver, Colo., April 27.—With no open outbreaks reported but with the situation tense in Las Animas, Huertano and Fremont county coal districts, all parties concerned in the Colorado coal strike today anxiously awaited President Wilson's reply to the appeal for federal troops.

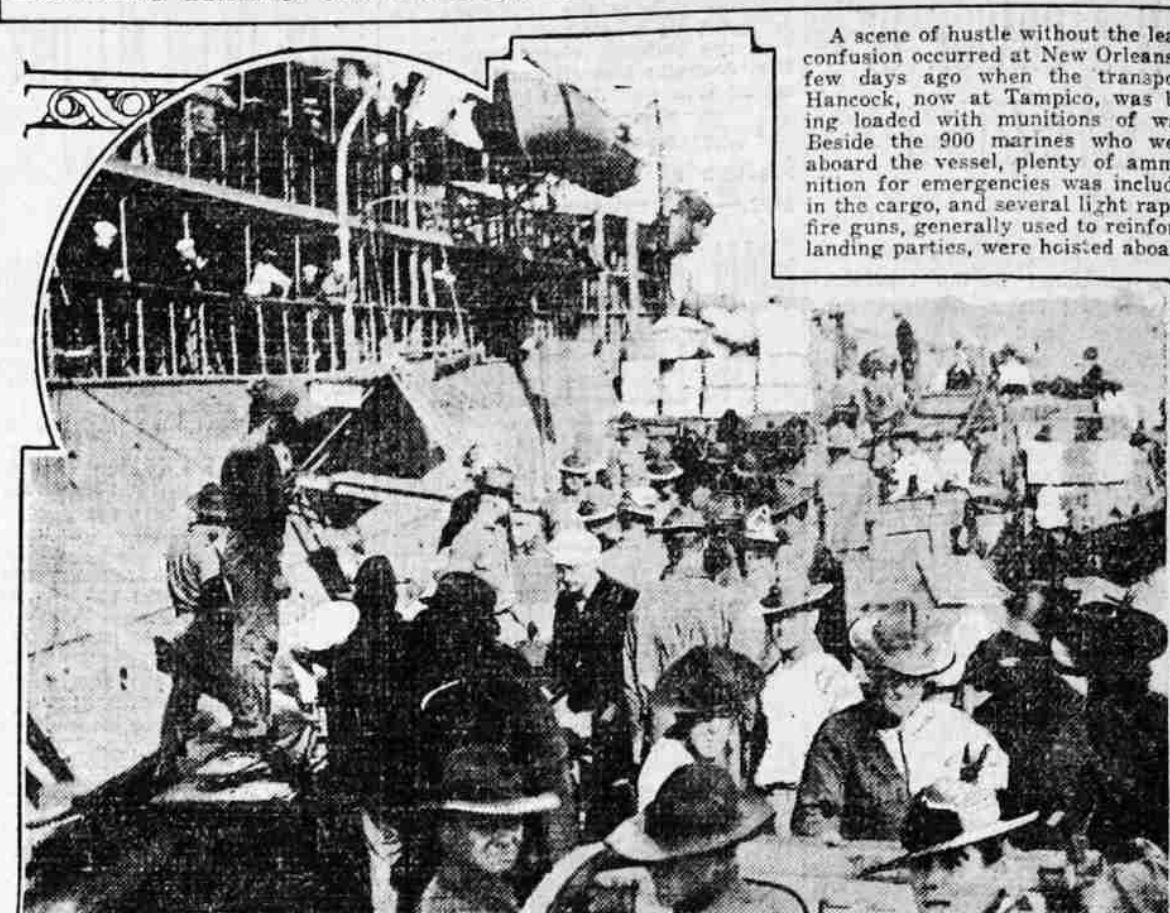

General John Chase with 200 militiamen reached Canon City early today, made a hurried tour of the surrounding territory and reported conditions quiet. The 100 citizens, who last night patrolled the town and territory to the south and east, were induced to surrender their arms to the sheriff, leaving further protective measures to the militia.

Today's advices were that no fighting had occurred at the Royal Gorge mine, two and a half miles from Canon City and that the strikers still were in possession of the Chandler mine, where there has been no serious property damage so far as known.

LOADING TRANSPORT AT NEW ORLEANS WITH MUNITIONS OF WAR

A scene of hustle without the least confusion occurred at New Orleans a few days ago when the transport Hancock, now at Tampico, was being loaded with munitions of war. Beside the 900 marines who went aboard the vessel, plenty of ammunition for emergencies was included in the cargo, and several light rapid-fire guns, generally used to reinforce landing parties, were hoisted aboard.

MAY NOT END THE MEXICAN AFFAIR

Washington, April 27.—Uncertainty still exists as to Mexican situation. Diplomatic experts, not directly concerned in the negotiations, were also far from sharing optimism manifested by some state department officials in the issue of the tender of good offices. No basis on which the negotiations were to go forward, once the formal acceptance from General Huerta had been received, had become known in diplomatic circles where the belief was prevalent that such a basis had not yet been evolved. It was quite generally felt, that too wide a gulf lay between the standpoint of the United States and that of General Huerta to be bridged over by the Pan-American mediation. It is said one of these diplomats to be as if Huerta "is to be invited to step out and commit political suicide—and to expect him to accept the invitation."
